LOWELL POLICE DEPARTMENT INVESTIGATING PEDESTRIAN CRASH

The Lowell Police Department is investigating a serious motor vehicle crash involving a pedestrian. At 9:51pm Sunday evening September 14th, LPD responded to the 1500 block of Middlesex St. near the intersection with East Aldea St. for a reported pedestrian stuck by a vehicle. Officer found a 33 year female from Lowell had been hit while crossing Middlesex St. and was suffering from serious injuries. The victim was subsequently transported via medical helicopter to Tufts New England Medical Center in Boston with life threatening head injuries and is listed in critical condition. The operator of the vehicle is a 31 year old female from Lowell, Mia Liz Davis who was cited by officers for having a suspended license. The crash remains under investigation.
